Finished with chemically perfect materials
Trimmed with hardware architecturally correct
The workmanship is the finest in the world
The construction is mechanically perfect

Specifications

Our product is manufactured under the following specifications:

Writing beds, upper tops, large panels and surfaces built up five-ply, top and bottom layers of which cover entire surfaces, resulting in no break where end and side edges meet; these corners are mitered, thus showing figured stock on all edges. Drawers are dovetailed front and back, full height, and drawer bottoms are paneled in. All drawer sides and backs are hardwood. We use three-ply drawer bottoms throughout.

Made in Oak and Mahogany

THE finest example of massive construction and rich effect that has ever been designed. This splendid production requires no description. (This desk is illustrated fairly plain for a carved desk; with the idea of carving a monogram, shield, or anything that would appeal to a purchaser, on end or back panels; the design of which our Architectural Department will suggest or work up, appropriate to a prospective customer). Oak leaf carved on drawer pulls on an oak desk, and mahogany leaf on the pulls of a mahogany desk. Solid cast bronze pulls if desired.
